

109. An envelope comprising first and second sheets attached together and defining a pocket between said sheets, said first sheet having inside and outside faces, said first sheet having one or more areas on which information may be printed, on the outside face of said first sheet, said first sheet having a solid opaque area on its inside face and directly behind each said area of said outside face.

C1
cont.

adil
D3

REMARKS

Claims 82-109 are in this case. There are ~~13~~ independent claims 82, 87, 88, 90, 91, 93, 96, 97, 99, 100, 102, 104 and 109.

Thus, by this Amendment, Applicant has reduced the number of claims in this case from 70 to 28.

Applicant wishes to thank the Examiner for his diligent effort of clearing up the problem with the claims.

It is noted that Applicant's attorney filed a Power of Attorney and an Information Disclosure Statement on May 9, 2000. That Power of Attorney has never been withdrawn or revoked.

Therefore, the following papers have been recently filed:

1. Power of Attorney filed 5/9/00
2. IDS filed 5/9/00
3. Amendment filed 5/22/00
4. IDS citing two patents filed 5/22/00
5. IDS citing one prior use filed 5/22/00.

Respectfully submitted,

William D. Hall

---

William D. Hall
Register 14,311
Attorney for Applicant

10850 Stanmore Drive
Potomac, Maryland 20854
Tel. (301) 983-5070